As Rabi' al-Awwal begins, it's a fitting time to reflect on our relationship with Nabi ﷺ and the significance of Du'a in our lives. The early Muslims lived with unwavering devotion to Allah SWT and His Messenger. Their love for Nabi ﷺ was evident in their consistent actions, not just words. Today, however, we often fall short of their example. Central to this devotion is Du'a, which Nabi ﷺ taught as a vital means of communicating with Allah. He instructed his Companions on how and when to make Du'a, emphasizing sincerity, humility, and reliance on Allah in both ease and hardship. Nabi ﷺ provided specific Du'as for every occasion, showing that Du'a is not just a last resort but a continuous practice integral to a believer's life. By teaching these Du'as, Nabi ﷺ demonstrated their effectiveness in seeking Allah's help and blessings in every situation. This comprehensive approach ensured that the Companions maintained a constant connection with Allah, equipping them to face any challenge with faith and resilience. In essence, Nabi's ﷺ guidance on Du'a provides a framework for living a life fully attuned to Allah, transforming the believer's life and making Du'a the most powerful tool for success in this world and the hereafter.

Please Note: Late Jumu'ah Prayer takes place in the upstairs prayer hall of the Masjid at 4.15pm.
